summer is brief, sighed the autumn leaf,
and my green is touched with red;
I have lived my brief, bright summer days;
and soon I shall be dead.

I shall lie in the mold so dark and cold—
I shall change to a shapeless thing;
²but up from my mold, when the year rolls round,
a beautiful flower will spring.

why should I sigh and shudder to die,
when nature the call has made?

³I will think of the beautiful, beautiful power,
and I will not be afraid.

Song I wish to my heart

I'm sitting on the stile Mary
 Where we sat side by side
 On a bright clear morning long ago
 When first you were my bride
 The corn was springing fresh and green
 And the lark sang loud and high
 And the red was on your lip Mary
 And the love light in your eye

The place has little changed Mary
 The day is bright as then
 And the lark's loud song is in my ear
 And the corn is green again
 But I miss the soft clasp of your hand
 And your breath warm on my cheek
 And I still keep listening for the word
 You never more shall speak

No 3

'Tis but a step down yonder lane
 And the village church stand near
 And church where we were wed Mary
 I see the spire from here
 But the grave-yard lies between Mary
 And my step might break your rest
 For I laid you darling down to sleep
 With your baby on your breast

No 4

I'm very lonely now Mary
 For the poor make no new friends
 But they love the better far
 The few our father send
 And you were all I had Mary

My blessing and pride
There nothing left to care for now
Since my poor Mary died
No 5

I'm bidding you a long fare well
My Mary kind and true
But I'll not forget you darling
In the land I'm going to
They say there's bread and work for all
And the sun shines always there
But I not forget old Ireland.
For it's ten fifty times as fair.

I will take you back again Kathleen
 Across the ocean wild and wide Perry
 To where your heart has ever been Since first you were my bonnie bride
 The roses they have left your cheek,
 I watched them fade away and die
 Your voice is sad when can you speak
 And tears beding your lovely eye.

I'll take you back again Kathleen
 To where your heart will feel know-pain S yb
 And when the fields are bright and green
 I'll take you to your home again.

Perry

I know you love me Kathleen dear
 Your heart was ever fond and true
 I always feel when you are near I vry
 That life holds nothing dear but you M S
 The bright smiles that once you gave to me
 I scarcely ever see them now
 Though many many times I see I Perry
 A darkening shadow on your brow.

Go that bright land beyond the sea Manuel ylyv
 My Kathleen shall again return
 And when thy old friends welcome thee
 My aching heart will cease to yearn Manuel
 Then along side the little silver stream
 Beside your mothers humble cot
 Then all our joys they will be seen Sept
 And all our grief will be forgot. Sept
